Vote Daily for Cristo Rey Network!

As many of you know, we are a member school of the Cristo Rey Network. Our national organization is in the running for the Parents Choice Award, a $100,000 prize funded by the Yass Foundation for Education.

We are asking our families, supporters, and friends to vote daily for the Cristo Rey Network!

If the Cristo Rey Network receives the most votes and is awarded the Parents Choice Award, the $100,000 prize will fuel an innovation grant for several Cristo Rey Network schools (like us!). By voting in support of our national network, our school could be eligible to receive the grant to fund innovative, high-impact projects for our students.

Please vote early and often. You can vote daily from now until November 24. This five second task can make a substantial impact on our movement, locally and nationally. We thank you in advance!

Life of St. Martin de Porres

Martin de Porres was born in Lima, Peru, in 1579. His father's name was Don Juan de Porres and he was a Spanish nobleman who later became governor of Panama. His mother's name was Ana Velasquez and she was a free black woman.

Early in his life, Martin had a spiritual experience where he realized that he was seen and loved by God and that he had special gifts to give to the world. After that spiritual encounter, Martin became devoted to learning more about God. Because of his deep connection to God, he applied to join the Dominican Order (a Catholic religious community) at the age of 15.
